Report on the Celebration of Rabindranath Tagore's Birthday

The Cultural Committee in collaboration with the IQAC, Sir Rashbehari Ghosh Mahavidyalaya observed the birth day of the Nobel laureate "Rabindra Jayanti" 15.05.2024. The event took place at the Virtual Class Room, attended by students, teachers and non-teaching staffs at 12.30 pm. Rabindranath Tagore, the iconic poet, writer, philosopher, and the first non-European Nobel laureate in Literature, is celebrated globally for his literary and cultural contributions. To honor his birth anniversary, a celebration was organized to remember his legacy and promote his works. This is important to note that Tagore's birthday that falls on 09.05.2024 was not observed on the specific date as the college was taken the Election Commission of India for the Loksabha Election.

Objectives

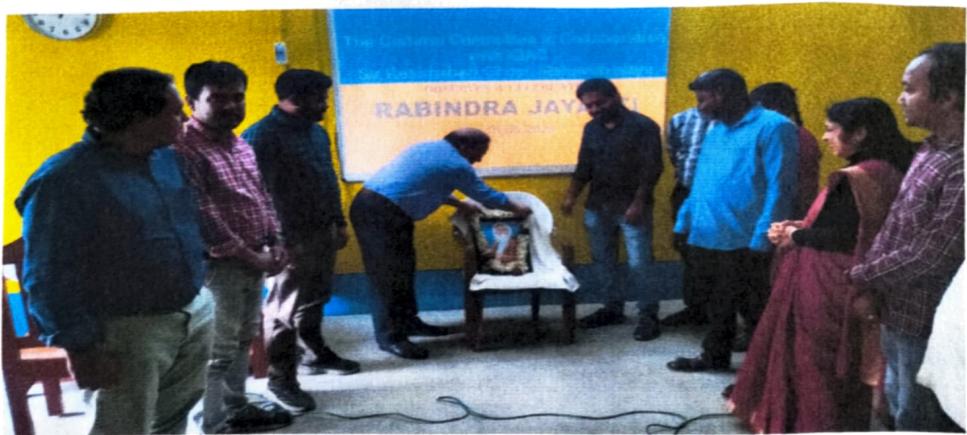

1. To commemorate the life and achievements of Rabindranath Tagore.
2. To inspire the students with his works and philosophy.
3. To promote appreciation for Bengali literature and culture.

The programme started with offering flowers and garlands to The principal delivered speeches on Tagore's contributions to literature, education, and humanity. The IQAC Coordinator talked on Tagore's educational philosophy, with an emphasis on creativity and freedom in learning. The event concluded with a vote of thanks by Tulika Mondal and a collective singing of Ekla Cholo Re, a song that resonates with Tagore's message of resilience and self-reliance.

The event successfully celebrated the life and work of Rabindranath Tagore, encouraging participants to explore his rich legacy. The cultural performances and interactive sessions inspired attendees to appreciate the timeless relevance of his ideas.

The celebration was a heartfelt tribute to Rabindranath Tagore, fostering a deeper connection with his works and philosophy. It served as a reminder of the importance of preserving and promoting the literary and cultural heritage he left behind.
